For Release: Immediately

George Billis Gallery is pleased to welcome Elaine Komorowski and her new work. This exhibition will run from January 27th to February 21st, 2015. The opening reception will be held at the gallery located at 525 West 26th Street between 10th and 11th avenues on Thursday, January 29th from 6-8 pm.

Elaine Komorowski presents a fascinating range of artistic influences in her new collection. The black and white imagery of Film Noir, as well as vintage newspapers and old photos provide inspiration that the artist uses to highlight the ferocious fighters, dangerous dames and fallen heroes that are our timeless companions.

Wooden painting surfaces play a key role in Elaine Komorowski's work in that they also tell part of the story. The old pieces of wood she comes across "give me an idea and I fill out the story." The artist seeks to show in her work that "the past is always present," and that impressions of yesteryear do not die quickly.

"Discarded, rescued, rendered;" this is the theme of Elaine Komorowski's newest body of work. Elaine Komorowski received her MFA from the Pratt Institute in 1990. She is also a graduate of the College of William and Mary. The artist currently lives and works in Brooklyn, New York. This is the painter's fifth solo exhibition at the George Billis Gallery.
